

XXII CONFERENCE OF THE HELICONIA SOCIETY INTERNATIONAL

Featuring Keynote Speaker: W. John Kress, Research Botanist and Curator Emeritus of the Smithsonian National Museum of Natural History speaking on phylogeny, classification, and conservation status of species in the genus Heliconia.

Additional Program Topics and Presenters

- Changes in Costaceae Taxonomy- David Skinner, Le Jardin Ombragé
- Yield and Flowering Behavior of Heliconia Species- Maria Joao Fernandes, Madiera Regional Secretary of Agriculture, Fisheries, and Environment
- Pest Management For Post-harvest In Gingers- Dong Cha, USDA PBARC
- Viruses in Alpinia- Russell Galanti, UH CTAHR
- Wild Banana Species, A Travel Log- Gabriel Sachter-Smith, Hawaii Banana Source
- Beyond the Bloom: Commercial and Cultural Importance of Zingiberales Rhizomes in Hawai'i- Theodore Radovich, UH CTAHR
- Alpinia to Zingiber- Richard Criley, UH CTAHR
- Beastly Beauties: When Zingiberales Go Wild!- David Lorence, National Tropical Botanical Garden
- Heliconia in the Landscape- Vivian Loges, Rural Federal University of Pernambuco
- More topics and speakers to come!

COOPERATIVE EXTENSION
UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII AT MANOA

HELICONIA
SOCIETY
INTERNATIONAL

March 23-25, 2025
University of Hawaii Campus Center
Honolulu, Hawaii

Contact Us <https://www.heliconia.org/conference>

Inquiries and Registration
hsicon25@gmail.com

Abstract Submissions
Leonhard@hawaii.edu